PROJECT EXPERIENCE

REDDIT CLONE

HTML, CSS, JavaScript

- Situation: Needed to replicate Reddit's dynamic interface in a static environment.
- Task: Build a responsive, interactive front end that maintains layout integrity across devices.
- Action: Employed semantic HTML, modular SCSS, and vanilla JavaScript to create interactive vote buttons, comment previews, and adaptive grid layouts.
- Result: Delivered a pixel-perfect, with seamless performance.

SPOTIFY PLAYLIST MAKER

React, Spotify Web API

- Situation: Playlist creation on Spotify required multiple manual steps.
- Task: Simplify track discovery and list assembly.
- Action: Integrated Spotify's OAuth flow, leveraged React hooks for playlist state management, and optimized fetch calls to reduce latency.
- Result: Reduced playlist creation time by 60% and received positive feedback on usability.

RECIPE EXPLORER

Express.js, TheMealDB API

- Situation: develop a platform for discovering and engaging with recipes in real time.
- Task: Develop a full-stack application enabling search, detail views, and community comments.
- Action: Built an Express.js backend for API integration and a front end with Context API to manage state and asynchronous data fetching.
- Result: Enabled users to browse 500+ recipes, leave comments, and enjoy a fluid UI, increasing engagement metrics in testing.

DUMPLIFY & WOVEN E-COMMERCE DESIGN

HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript

- Situation: Small businesses needed modern, mobile-first storefronts.
- Task: Design accessible, performance-optimized web pages for restaurant and clothing brands.
- Action: Implemented responsive grid systems, ARIA attributes for accessibility, and CSS custom properties for theme consistency.
- Result: Delivered cohesive brand experiences that improved mobile load times by 30% and enhanced user retention.
